

Feature Description	Message Editor facilitates the creation of reusable HTML code for use in different contexts, and allows scheduling message delivery to reach recipients at the optimal time.
Test Goals	Test the Message Editor main features
Environment	Production
Date	04/30/2024
Responsible	Luiz Pereira

Scenarios

HTML Editor

Scenario	Create New HTML Content
Given	that I navigate to the Content tab
When	clicking on HTML Content
And	save new HTML when filling out the form
Then	new HTML content should be created successfully displaying the message: "Message content has been updated successfully"
And	the content should simulated on mobile and desktop screens by clicking the "Preview" button
And	It should be possible to export and copy the HTML by clicking the "View HTML" button

Scenario	Add Image to HTML from Local File Upload
Given	that you are on the HTML editor screen when accessing HTML Content
When	select HTML content
And	search for image upload
Then	Should add local image to HTML successfully

Scenario	Add image to HTML from URL
Given	that you are on the HTML editor screen when accessing HTML Content
When	select HTML content
And	search for image URL
Then	Should add image by URL to HTML successfully

Scenario	Perform advanced image search for HTML
Given	that you are on the HTML editor screen when accessing HTML Content
When	select HTML content
And	click on the Advanced search button
Then	I can perform an advanced image search by filling in the Name, Tags, File Type and Last Modified fields

Schedule Sending

Scenario	Send a batch message immediately
Given	that is logged in
When	navigate to messages > create a new message
And	select option to Send immediately
Then	so you should save sending an immediate message

Scenario	Schedule for a future date
Given	to choose a future agenda
When	you choose the date and time you want the message to be sent
And	click on save
Then	the Schedule Message button will become available on the left side of your message creation page.

Scenario	Edit a scheduled message
Given	navigate to Messages > Scheduled
When	hovering the arrow next to the scheduled message name
And	select edit option
Then	it should be possible to successfully edit a scheduled message

Scenario	Schedule send according to contact's time zone
Given	that is on the scheduled time screen
When	scheduling a message for a future date, you can set the scheduled send time according to the contact's time zone
And	the option will be available
Then	It should be possible to successfully edit a scheduled message

Scenario	Throttle a batch message
Given	I am in the Schedule Sending panel
When	select Throttled batch sending
And	select Audience size per batch or Maximum number of batches
Then	It should be possible to configure message restrictions in a batch message

Scenario	Message Performance
Given	that I am in the Message tab
When	I click on the Performance option
Then	I will be able to visualize different types of data to analyze message performance